

BM1 Von Vaughn of Explosive Ordnance Disposal Mobile Unit Six (EODMU-6) practices recompression chamber procedures under the supervision of HM2 Michael Brown aboard the fleet ocean tug USNS Catawba (T-ATF 168) before a dive in the Arabian Gulf. The recompression chamber enables divers to be readily treated on-site for decompression sickness (the bends) and pulmonary over-inflation syndrome (POIS) and arterial gas embolism (AGE).

Photo by PH1 Arlo K. Abrahamson