

Good

It's a fact: Seat belts save thousands of lives each year.

Bad

One only can hope the adults here made these young girls get seated correctly and buckled up before the car started moving.

Ugly

Even a seat belt couldn't save the Sailor driving this car when, with a BAC twice the legal limit of 0.08, he hit a telephone pole at an estimated 95 mph. Three passengers with seat belts, however, escaped with injuries.
